

TO MAHSA AMINI

et

To the women who reject female genital mutilation,
to the women who reject the Islamic law of Sharia,
to the millions of girls who suffer forced marriage.

The morality police (1) are making a frightening comeback in Iran. The hunt for unveiled women (2) has resumed in Iran, where refusing to wear the hijab is now considered both a crime and a contagious mental illness. (3)

At the same time, a mysterious wave of poisonings from adulterated alcohol has claimed dozens of lives. Two months before the anniversary of the torture, rape, and murder of Mahsa Amini for wearing a headscarf improperly (4) on September 16, the sinister white vans of the morality police, identical to the one that had arrested the young Kurdish woman, have reappeared on the streets of Iranian cities. The first images of the arrests show, among other things, a woman in a black chador restraining a woman without a headscarf, until the very rapid arrival of the van of the “gasht-e-ershad,” literally the “Islamic guidance patrols” (5).

1 - The morality police.

When I reread those words, almost instantly, an image came back to me: a YouTube video from about two months ago:

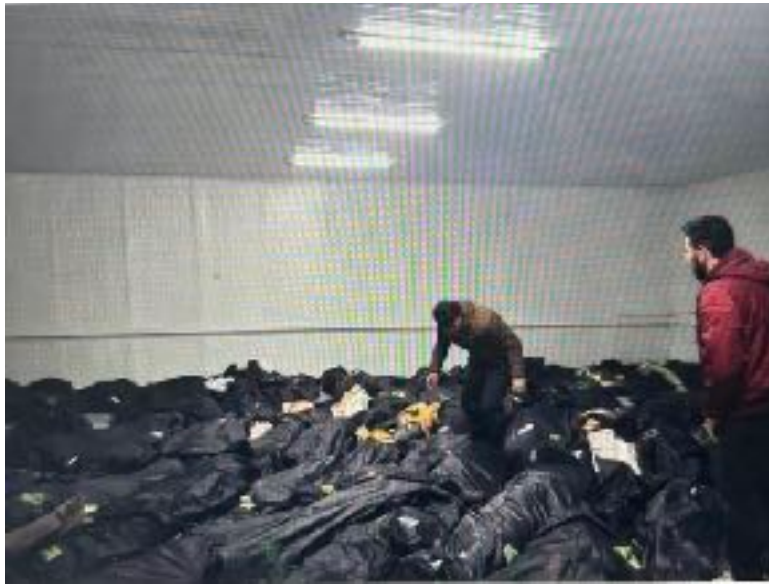

The "sophisticated population" mentioned by this ?influential? Woman — — at least that's what I assume she is and I didn't feel the need to check her name — — this "sophisticated population" is the one to which the heroic, courageous, noble and committed feminist Mahsa Amini belonged. As for the "resource-rich" country, it's Iran.

JI understand that this person might be against the war in Iran, or at least against the way President Trump is conducting it. That's their right, and I readily acknowledge it. But, in the first case in particular, faced with the unspeakable violence of the morality police, to pontificate with grand pronouncements of "sophistication" and "wealth" is, in my opinion, to demonstrate a severe and lamentable disconnect from reality. Let the reader be the judge!

“Men stand amid rows of corpses in a Tehran morgue following the massacre of protesters by security forces (undated image obtained by Iran International). More than 36,500 Iranians were killed by security forces during the crackdown on nationwide protests on January 8 and 9, making it the deadliest two-day massacre in history, according to documents reviewed by the Iran International editorial board.”

And don't even try to tell me that this war is just about power, oil or uranium because it is also about freedom and WOMEN'S RIGHTS

AND WHAT ABOUT THE ORDINARY PEOPLE WHO WERE MASSACRED??

The Ayatollahs' regime is TERROR INCARNATE.

2 - The Hunt for Women

To speak of hunting Women is, in daily practice, to speak of RAPES — — as in "the VEIL VIOLATES Women's Freedom" — — and, preferably, of "RAPES" of Western women. A quarter of a million in England, 210,000 per year in France, and how many in Germany? In Italy? In the Netherlands? In Sweden? In Ireland? — — but not in Hungary or Poland — — and how many more everywhere else where, in brutal misogynistic violence, more than 900 "NO GO" ZONES have been established?

When we consider that we live in a world in which several countries, Iran first and foremost, torture and kill women thirsting for dignity and freedom simply because they refuse to wear the veil, we understand why our Western civilization arouses so much hatred and also, what a revolting observation, so many RAPES.

Dirty whites, we're going to RAPE your Women and come colonize you.

3 - Serious mental illness

LOVE IS A SERIOUS MENTAL ILLNESS (PLATO)

4 - a poorly worn veil

«So what, Mahsa! You dared to let a strand of hair peek out from under your VEIL! Honestly! That's unacceptable! Disrespecting the dogma of the "Grand Master," Ayatollah Khamenei, deserves punishment. So we're going to imprison you, torture you, RAPE you while we're at it, why not, and then we're going to kill you, just to make it clear to all the Little People, of which you are a part, that the Principle that guides us is terror ».

And terror everywhere. Let's listen to Marion Maréchal talk about what has become of her country, France:

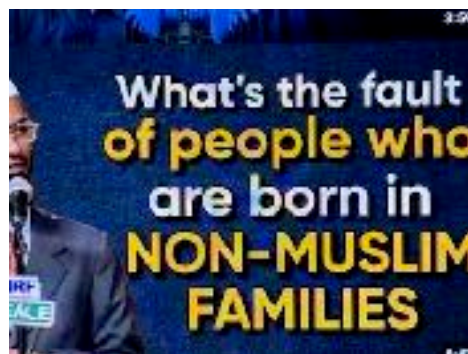

«a country where a young girl can, as reparation for a so-called honor crime, be kidnapped and have her head shaved for having dated a boy ».

5 - Islamic orientation

IN RELIGION, WOMEN ARE INFERIOR TO MEN

EVERYTHING THAT IS NOT MUSLIM IS DEFECTIVE.
